SHERIFF SMITH

Is Appointed State Banking Commissioner to Succeed Late S. V. Mathews.

(SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM)
CHARLESTON, Mar. 27.—S. P.
Smith, former sheriff of Kanawha county and previously therto assistant commissioner of banking under the late Samuel Mathews, was late this afternoon appointed commissioner of banking, for a term of four years, effective July 1, by Governor Henry D. Hatfield.

Since the death of Commissioner Mathews, Assistant Commissioner Edward Diehl has been in charge of the office.

Mrs. Lee Boggs was here Saturday evening from Shinnston shopping.

DISTRICT MEETING IS HELD AT WALDO

By Agents of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company.

A large and enthusiastic body of Northwestern Life men was present at the meeting in the Waldo hotel Saturday. Several agents were kept away on account of sickness, but those present were enthusiastic and report a most profitable and inspiring meeting.

The good fellowship that attends the assembling of professional men in whatever line is always productive of much good in itself. Several splendid talks were made at the meeting. C. B. Taylor is a master of the subject of insurance and is known as a speaker and orator wherever he goes.

The outlook for a splendid year is excellent and the inspiration gotten from this meeting will be productive of much good to both the new and the old men in the business.

The Clarksville district had an excellent turn out. This is one of the best districts in the state and the annual production is increasing very rapidly. The outlook never was better for the life insurance harvest.
The fields are white already to harvest. The Northwestern is the largest purely American company. It is purely mutual, giving low net cost and a liberal policy.

Following was the program:
Why men Fall as Agents—Elements of Success H. M. Taylor Essentials an Agent Should Know H. L. Smith.

"The Relation of Life Insurance to Modern Business and to Modern Social Conditions . . . O. T. Heyman.
"The Country Field—How Best to Develop It C. B. Taylor Round Table Discussion.
Method of approach.
Creating a demand for your product.

Effect of hard times on selling insurance.
Excuses, procrastinations and the disinterested.
Disability, double indemnity and competition.

"The 'I can invest my money better' argument.
Trailing, differentiating, closing.
The business a part-time man should reasonably produce.

Those present were: C. Burgess Taylor, Wheeling; George Paul Robert, Elizabeth; Herbert L. Smith, Parkersburg; J. F. Bradford, Middletown, W. Va.; Paul M. Smith, Parkersburg; Carl S. Lawson, Clarksville; Russell L. Law, Morgantown; H. G. Hardbarger, Cairo, W. Va.; Leland F. Strader, Bridgeport, I. C.
Allman, Wolf Summit, and W. H. Davisson and Clyde O. Lowe, Clarksville.

Reward Offered for Suspected Murderer

County and Sheriff Will Give $150 for Capture of Missing Negro.

Sheriff Ross F. Stout announces that the county court has authorized a reward of $100 for the capture or information leading to the capture of John Davis, the negro who is suspected of shooting and killing Mrs.
Amanda Ransell, an elderly negress, three weeks ago at her home on a billside north of the city.

To this reward, Sheriff Stout has personally added a reward of $50, making a total of $150.

While the coroner's jury that investigated the tragedy did not have enough evidence to lay the crime at the hands of Davis, county officers strongly suspect that Davis was the murderer. The verdict of the jury was that Mrs. Ransell came to her death from a shotgun wound at the hands of an unknown person. The motive for the crime is thought to have been the indictment of Davis at the instance of Mrs. Ransell a few days before the crime was committed on a charge of violating the prohibition law.

It will be recalled the crime was particularly cold blooded. Mrs. Ransell and two daughters were at their home, men folk of the family having gone to the business section of the city, when she heard a noise in front of the house and went to the front door to peer through a crack. Just as she put her face to the crack, a shot was fired from a shotgun placed against the outside of the door and struck the defenseless woman in the chest, killing her instantly. Part of the panel of the door was driven County officers suspect that the crime was premeditated. They are of the opinion that Davis had a package of clothing and food packed all ready for flight at his home just east of the city, that he went there after the shooting and then fled across hills into Ohio. Not a word has been heard of him since the night of the murder and although deputy sheriffs have trailed several clues they have been unable to get any definite trace of him.

BURN VILLAGE

Do Austrian Troops in Failing Back before the Russian Forces.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
PETROGRAD, Mar. 27.—The following official statement from general headquarters was issued tonight:
"West of the little Nieman on the right bank of the Nieman and on the left bank of the Vistula there has been no essential change in the situation.

"In the Carpathians we have made considerable progress in the direction of Bartseld. The Austrians, in falling back, set fire to the village of Zborov.

"In the direction of Baligrad we have carried a fortified height east of Razoljetz. Near Russjedynica and Kozloujka we successfully repelled important forces of the enemy. During the course of the day we made prisoners of about 2,500 Austrian soldiers besides forty officers and we captured seven machine guns. In western Galicia we drove back a battalion which crossed the Dniester, near Jozava inflicting very heavy losses."

ROCKEFELLER, JR.

And Party of Railroad Officials on a Special Train Visit City of Elkins.

(SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM) ELKINS, March 27.—A general belief that there will be some changes in railroad affairs in this section was strengthened today when a party of New York Central and Hudson River, Western Maryland and Chesapeake and Ohio railroad officials made an inspection trip on a special train from Connellsville, Pa., to this city, and thence to Durbin.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is said to be on the special, which consists of five private cars, but this report cannot as yet be verified.

It is believed here that either the New York Central lines or the Baltimore and Ohio system will take over the coal and coke railroad, which would be a valuable feeder to either line.

It is stated that the officials will return to Cumberland, Md. in the morning and go thence to Baltimore, Md.

RECEIVES INVITATION.

Chief of Police Harry L. Brooks has received a personal invitation from Mayor Frederick S. Spiegel, of Cincinnati, to be in attendance at the annual convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, which meets in that city May 25-28. Chief Brooks has written Mayor Spiegel that he will be in attendance at the convention.

JAIL SERVICES.

The Rev. W. M. Slaughter, of Stealey Heights, is scheduled to hold services at the county jail this afternoon.

HOME FROM SPRINGS.

Jesse F. Randolph and Miss Ida Randolph, both of Salem, and Mrs.
Robert L. Townsend, of Washington, D. C., have returned to Salem from Hot Springs, Ark., where they sojourned six weeks.

COURT TOMORROW.

ARMY CAPTURED

At Przemyśl by the Germans before Its Fall, Numbers 125,000 Men.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
PETROGRAD, March 27, via London, March 28.—The following official statement from general headquarters was issued tonight:

"The German press asserts that the garrison of Przemyśl did not exceed 25,000 men; that the supplies would have lasted a long time if the garrison had not been compelled to share its scanty rations with an enormous number of Russian prisoners captured during the course of sorties; that the fall of Przemyśl has no military importance and that the Russians have destroyed 300 towns and villages in Galicia of which 250 were razed to the ground.

"All such assertions are malicious inventions. We captured at Przemyśl an army of about 125,000. Its detailed composition and the names of the leaders will be published immediately they are compiled. The Russians, whom we liberated at Przemysl, numbered only 1,350, most of them wounded.

"The importance the enemy attaches to Przemyśl may be judged by the innumerable sacrifices in attempts to relieve the garrison dating back to November. No town or village in Galicia was destroyed or razed."

BASTOW CASE

Is in the Hands of a Jury Which is Adjourned until Monday Morning.

A criminal court jury got the case of Harry Bastow at 9:30 o'clock last night, but as there was no agreement at 11 o'clock, Judge James W.
Robinson adjourned the jury until Monday morning.

Bastow's troubles arise from activity in oil and gas leasing and operating. In promoting leases and operations it was charged in the bill of particulars in this case that in January, 1913, he sold Max Adolt, of Buckhannon, five shares of stock in a company to acquire and operate the Whiteman lease near Shinnston, but that he never issued these five shares of $50 each to Adolt, who had paid for them, and that he had not returned the money or issued the stock upon request of Adolt.

The case had been on trial in the criminal court two days and last night's session of the court was held with a view to ending the trial, so that the jurors in the case might spend Sunday at home and not be locked up.

DEAD IN TEXAS

Is Daniel Little, a Former Resident of the City of Clarksburg.

Word has been received here of the death of Daniel Little, a former resident of Clarksburg, Friday in Texas, whether he went twenty years or more ago. The body will be brought to Pittsburgh, where it will be interred Tuesday. Mr. Little was about 55 years of age, his relatives here are P. F. McDonald, Mrs. F.
Moran and Mrs. Ella O'Connell.

Denham

Is Suggested by the Wheeling Intelligencer, as a Candidate for Congress.

Saturday's Wheeling Intelligencer contained the following editorial of interest here:

An interesting rumor comes from Clarksburg to the effect that the reputable Sherman Denham contemplates becoming a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the new congressional district of which Harrison county is a part.

Mr. Denham has been a life-long Republican, and probably has done as much effective work for the party organization in his section of the state as any other man. While the Intelligencer has not agreed with Mr.
Denham's views from time to time, it has been compelled to recognize and admire his vigor, his tenacity of purpose, and his general ability. Mr.
Denham is a successful business man, a splendid organizer and a first-rate executive. Should his district determine to send him to Congress, his constituents will have a representative who will be constantly, energetically and effectively on the job.

HOTEL.

At Richwood is under the Management of Mark Hamilton Now.

RICHWOOD, Mar. 27.—The new Northern hotel has again changed hands. The former proprietor, G. M.
Epling, having wearied of city life, has betaken himself to more congenial scenes amidst the rural element and will again try his fortune as a rurist. Mark Hamilton has taken charge of the hotel and he says the hotel under the new management will be conducted in a first class and up to date manner, and will cater as usual to the patronage of the traveling public.

PALM SUNDAY

Will Be Commemorated in Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran Churches.

Today, Palm Sunday, will be observed as such in Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches, with appropriate ceremonies. It commemorates the triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem, a few days before His passion, in which His way was strewn with palm branches by the Jewish people. In Catholic churches palms will be blessed by the celebrant of the mass at the Epistle corner of the altar, after which they will be distributed to assisting priests, attendants in the sanctuary and then the laity.

Cherokee outlaw, for whom the state has offered a $1,000 reward. The other gave the name of William Estes.

Paul Curry, eighteen years old, son of the town marshal, wounded and helped capture Starr, when the band rushed from the bank and attempted to mount their horses and escape from the gathering citizens. Less than an hour after the robbers fled under a hot fire they were surrounded by a determined posse. Telephone calls brought scores of armed ranchers in automobiles, on horseback and on foot to the scene.

Starr has served prison sentences for bank robbery in the southwest and has been accused of others. It is said that in 1902, after Starr's band had robbed a train near Pryor Creek, Okla., they discovered while galloping to their camp a Joplin, Mo., girl who had fled from the train in terror at the gang's shots.

The meeting ended in the marriage of Starr and the girl. Mrs. Cora Starr, said to have been the heroine of the romance, obtained a divorce at Sapulpa, today.

CHEROKEE DESPERADO ADMITS HIS IDENTITY

CHANDLER, OKLA., Mar. 27.— Henry Starr, Cherokee desperado, in fall here, admitted his identity tonight, according to the police. Starr was brought here late today, after his capture at Stroud.

W. E. Beeghly, of Jane Lew, is a visitor in the city.

TO SAVE AN EDITOR.

Here is a minister who appreciates the editor. At a recent editorial convention he offered the following toast:
"To save an editor from starvation, take his paper and pay for it promptly. To save him from bankruptcy, advertise in his paper liberally. To save him from despair, send him every item of news of which you can get hold. To save him from profanity, write your correspondence plainly on one side of the sheet and send in as early as possible. To save him from mistakes bury him. Dead people are the only ones who never make mistakes."
